Artwork by Victoria J. Butterell

neowatercolour.com

‘The Brocco’, a watercolour painted by Victoria J Butterell, was purchased by a lady born in Sheffield, who moved to the USA as a child. She rarely visits, but came back in 2022, where Butterell was recommended by her cousin. She reviewed Victoria’s artwork and immediately loved ‘The Brocco’ the best, especially the white hound named ‘Angel’ at the bottom of the image. Originally from Millhouses, she still considers Sheffield her true home and misses it. She now lives in Salt Lake City and took the painting back to USA in her luggage!

Pablo Ruiz Picasso

In 1950, Pablo Picasso stayed here whilst attending the World Peace Congress in Sheffield. During his visit he drew a simple Dove on a napkin whilst having dinner, as a symbol of World Peace.

In honour of this, the dove is now a symbol of Brocco’s peace and tranquility.
